Agenda Items / Topics for Discussion:

Shared success stories:

- Divine House asked a parent to be their “Wraparound contact”
- Wraparound was helpful for a parent in the past
- A parent feels her wraparound team is going well
- Something new: “online Wraparound team!” Daughter is at school, trying wraparound via email
- A parent appreciates her “informal support”
- A parent is glad her son is home from placement
- Kudos to Laurie Bliss for her article published in NAMI Beginnings.

Discussion:

Evaluation updates:

- Surveys coming in – hope for a summary soon
- Progress Tool – slow in getting started, with two families so far. Char has not distributed these to facilitators. We’re going to pilot it first with five families.

DVD – taping begins Monday, January 14th. Char will keep the committee updated.

List of parents willing to have open meetings being compiled; Kelly and Julie will work on a release.

Action Taken / Recommendations:

Our mission: “The mission of the Wraparound Committee is to promote the family-driven and strength-based philosophies of Wraparound among service providers, families, partners and the community at large.” How are we doing this – DVD, informal contacts, and trainings.

Training Needs Identified:

Part two of the Wraparound 101 training will be held on Friday, January 11th. There are nine participants signed up.
